WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section unsettled weather with occasional showers tonight and Thursday; light southerly winds.

Weddings.

St. Paul's Church last night was the scene of a brilliant military wedding, when Miss Florence English Davidson, a well-known Alexandria beauty and belle, was united in matrimony to Lieut. Charles Minnigerode Maigne, of the Seventh Cavalry, U. S. A. The color scheme of yellow and white was perfectly carried out. The church was artistically decorated with palms. Immense flags and banners formed an effective background for the lovely young bride, surrounded by pretty maids, while the groom and all his attendants, in full dress uniform, standing under two banners made a brilliant and impressive picture. As Mr. Sherman B. Fowler, the organist, played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" the groom, attended by his best man, Lieut. Herbert Mann, Seventh Cavalry, entered from the vestry-room and stood at the right of the altar, while simultaneously the standard bearers and color guards of the Seventh Cavalry came up the center aisle and took positions on either side. The ushers, Lieuts. Humphrey, Jennings, Shannon and Montgomery, of the same command, entered next in their full-dress uniforms. The bride was preceded to the altar by her bridesmaids and maid of honor. She entered the church escorted by her father. After the ceremony, which was most impressively performed by the pastor, Rev. P. P. Phillips, the bride and groom, accompanied by the bridesmaids and maid of honor, proceeded to the home of the bride's parents, which was a veritable bower of cut flowers, palms, etc., and where the military decorations were also artistically carried out. A delightful collation was served. The bride's cake was cut by the bride with the groom's sword and the ring concealed in the cake fell to one of the bridesmaids. The bride's gown of grandmother satin and duchess lace in its elegant simplicity enhanced the youthful beauty of the wearer. Her sole ornament was a lovely pearl necklace, the gift of the maid of honor, Miss Bertie Davidson. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies and roses, emblems of her own lovely character. The maids were gown'd in white tulle with yellow girdles and carried handsome bouquets. They were Messrs. Rebecca Barrett, Lucy Douglas, Bessie Crawford and Nannie Jones, all intimate and devoted friends of the bride. The maid of honor was Miss Alberta Welborne Davidson, sister of the bride. Her dress was of yellow crepe de chine, and she carried white flowers. The young couple received many presents and congratulations, among the latter a graceful and charming letter from Mrs. Jefferson Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beverley Minis, of New York, were present; the latter, formerly Miss Janet Davidson, a sister of the bride, looked radiant in chiffon, embroidered in silver with pearls and diamond ornaments and well deserves the title she has gained in her new home, "the beautiful Mrs. Minis, of Virginia." Among the groom's relatives were Mrs. Andrews and Miss Belle Minnigerode, his home having always been with the latter. She was elegantly gown'd and seemed happy in the possession of a lovely new niece. Mr. and Mrs. Maigne left on the night train for Florida and later will sail for the Philippines, leaving behind them hosts of friends. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis James Davidson, and is a blonde of rare beauty and grace. Lieut. Maigne is a grandson of the late Rev. Charles Minnigerode, for many years rector of St. Paul's Church, in Richmond, but who subsequently resided in this city. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Miss Belle Minnigerode, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beverley Minis, of New York; Mrs. E. F. Andrews, Miss Annie Minnigerode, Mr. and Mrs. C. Powell Minnigerode, Col. and Mrs. Charles Morton, Mrs. Eli D. Hoyle, Maj. and Mrs. Nicholson, Maj. Summer, Capt. Roberts, Capt. and Mrs. Sumner, Capt. and Mrs. Foote, Miss Inoué, Lieut. and Mrs. Guintey, Lieut. and Mrs. West, Lieut. and Mrs. Herr, Lieut. and Mrs. Palmer, Lieut. and Mrs. Zell, Mrs. W. B. Baldwin, and Mrs. Miss Baldwin, Mr. Norman Bestor, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Blair, Mr. Frank Morse, of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Barrett, of Mexico; Judge C. E. Nicol, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Whitson, of New York, and Mr. John Taylor Stephenson.

Christ Church was filled this evening with the friends of the bride and groom to witness the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Lloyd Lee, of this city, and Mr. John G. Henry, of Morristown, N. J. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Cassius Francis Lee and one of Alexandria's most attractive and popular belles and the groom is a prominent young banker of New York and a graduate of Yale. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion and the assemblage was one of the most brilliant that has gathered there for some time. The marriage was a full-dress affair, there being six bridesmaids and ushers and the best man. The sister of the bride, Mrs. W. J. Booth, was to have acted as matron of honor, but her recent illness prevented her from being present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. J. Morton, pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. J. Thompson Cole, D. D., of Philadelphia, uncle of the bride. The bride was given away by her uncle, Dr. J. Wythe Cook, of Washington, and wore a handsome gown of white satin, made princess, with bodice gorgeously trimmed with duchesse and rare old point lace. She wore a tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Edna Louise Forbes, of Richmond; Miss L. Hazelhurst Bolton, of the University of Virginia; Miss Sallie Dainfield, of this city; Miss Constance Lee, of Philadelphia; Miss Edna Henry, of Morristown, N. J.; sister of the groom, and Miss Emma Norris, of Alexandria county. They wore gowns of white chiffon, trimmed with lace, and attractive hats of white Neapolitan straw trimmed with white roses. They carried shower bouquets of La France roses. The best man was Mr. Edgar M. Pennyman, of Wilmington, Del., and the usher was Mr. Gardner L. Bothe, of Alexandria; Mr. Arthur Phipps Ripley, Mr. J. W. Fuller Potter and Mr. Lewis M. Franklin, of New York, and Dr. Richard Cook, of Washington. A large number of out-of-town guests were present. The bride entered the church through the north door escorted by her uncle, Dr. G. Wythe Cook, and was preceded up the aisle by the six ushers and her bridesmaids. The groom, with his best man, entered by the south door and met his bride at the altar where the party was picturesquely grouped. Mrs. C. G. Lennon presided at the organ and rendered the wedding march in exquisite style. After the ceremony the wedding party proceeded down the south aisle and with the members of the families of the bride and groom and the invited guests were driven to the residence of the bride's mother, No. 706 Duke street, where a beautiful reception was held. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Henry left for an extended trip and will make their home in Morristown, N. J.

Fire in Washington.

Fire early this morning in the camp of Italians in the New Jersey avenue freight yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Washington resulted in loss of life of Charlie Ippolito, storekeeper, and about $1,000 to the railroad company, the building, a long shed, used for sleeping quarters, being entirely destroyed. The Italians were awakened this morning about 2 o'clock by cries of fire. Alarms were sent in to the various companies. Owing to the construction of the building, a wooden affair, the firemen were kept busy for the succeeding hour and a half. When the fire was burning its fiercest Charlie Ippolito made an unsuccessful attempt to enter the building for the purpose of recovering the company's money which he had left in the store. Nervous himself for the last time, Charlie fought his way through the flames to the cash drawer in the store. The fire and smoke, however, were too strong. His charred body was discovered lying on the floor, a large money bag containing silver in one hand and a pocketbook containing greenbacks in the other.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.] The following cases were disposed of this morning: William Jackson, colored, arrested by Officer Roberts charged with assaulting Hilary Brown, was fined $2.50. Three colored youths, arrested by Officers Lyles and Beach charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $2.50 each. A young man, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed. Henry Wells, arrested by Officer Allen on suspicion of robbing Peter Fulman's store, was dismissed.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.] Yesterday afternoon, the jury in the case of Mary Magdalene Johnson, charged with aiding and abetting her mother in the murder of James Evans, all colored, brought in a verdict finding the prisoner guilty of assault and battery and fixing her punishment at six months in the county jail. The trial of Joseph Gardner, colored, indicted for the murder of his wife, began today; jury and case in progress when this report closed.

Fra Diavolo.

The two most popular parts, on account of the comedy, are Beppo and Giacomo, which will be sustained by Mr. Harry B. Caton and George H. Evans, respectively. Mr. Caton made quite a hit as Teddy in the Little Tycoon, while Mr. Evans has appeared as Sir Joseph Porter in Pinocchio, Maj. Gen. Stanley in Pirates of Penzance, Gaspard in Chimes of Normandy, Pooh Bah in the Mikado, and Gen. Knickerbocker in the Little Tycoon. The comedy is well sustained by these two, particularly where they imitate Zerlina.

Birthday Party.

The ladies of St. Mary's church last night gave a birthday party at the hall of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum. The proceeds were for the benefit of the organ fund of the church. All the numbers of the programme were interesting, and those who took part were at their best and acquitted themselves creditably. Miss Lucy Graves sang a solo which was greatly enjoyed. She was accompanied by Miss Sallie Patterson. A progressive euchre party will be given tomorrow night.

Bought Steam Launch.

The steam launch Doc Reh, which was sold here several months ago at a marshall's sale to satisfy the claim of her engineer for wages due, and was purchased by Mr. Norman Moore of this city, has been sold recently to Dr. Reh of Washington. The little craft has been sent to Washington and is to receive an overhauling. The Reh is about thirty feet long, and has sleeping accommodations for a party of three or four.

Lamp Explosions.

The narrow escape of a family from serious injury as well as the destruction of a house is reported from Queen street. A child was sent to a neighboring store yesterday evening for coal oil and returned with gasoline. Lamps were filled with the fluid and when darkness was about to set in they were lighted. Explosions followed, but fortunately serious damage was averted by the members of the household.

Russians Defeated.

Tokio, April 26.—In an encounter between Russian and Japanese soldiers, near Kai Yuan, Manchuria, the Russians were defeated leaving 200 dead on the field. The Japanese lost 38. Twenty-two battalions of Russians also made an attack in the direction of Changtu. They were met by twelve squadrons of cavalry and one of artillery, from Siatotsu, who repulsed them.

Use of Sidewalks.

As had been anticipated, Mr. Fisher introduced in the Board of Aldermen last night a resolution providing for the use by merchants of a portion of the sidewalks under certain conditions. The resolution will be found in the official proceedings. It was referred to the committees on streets and general laws.

Fell Into the Creek.

A young lady who was walking across the electric railway bridge over Hunting creek on Monday, made a misstep and fell from the structure into the water. She was rescued by some of her companions. Fortunately she escaped serious injury.

Officer Suspended.

Mayor Paff this afternoon examined the charges Lieutenant Smith yesterday lodged against Officer Henderson. According to the lieutenant's statement, two Italians were arrested Monday charged with carrying concealed weapons, and early yesterday morning a friend of the prisoners appeared and had a consultation with them. One of the prisoners gave the man $40 to leave at the station house for the appearance of himself and partner later in the morning, but, for some reason, he went out, presumably thinking the police were exacting too much from the accused. Mr. Henderson was on duty at the station house at the time, and when the lieutenant entered and was told what had occurred, he told Mr. Henderson he should not have allowed the Italian to leave with the prisoner's money; that officers should not suffer prisoners to be robbed in the station house, or do any thing to cause people to suspect the police. The lieutenant stated that after he had thus spoken Mr. Henderson used harsh language toward him, among other things saying he did not care for any man on the force, that he was as good a man as any one of them, &c. Mr. Henderson acknowledged the truth of some portions of the lieutenant's statement, but averred that his (the lieutenant's) language was unnecessary and harsh, and whatever he (Henderson) might have said was in the way of a rejoinder, being provoked by the lieutenant's remarks. Several policemen testified in the case, the statements of each being substantially the same. Mayor Paff finally summed up the case, and suspended Mr. Henderson for five days, beginning May 1.

During the progress of the examination Lieutenant Smith said this was the third time Mr. Henderson had been guilty of similar conduct toward him, and called the Mayor's attention to the fact that he had withdrawn the same on another occasion. Some of the witnesses in giving their testimony said they had paid no special attention to the colloquy between Lieutenant Smith and Officer Henderson from the fact that such scenes were not uncommon at the station house. Mayor Paff said he was sorry to hear that such was the case.

The Kenilworth Pool Room.

It was stated at Upper Marlboro, Md., yesterday that the property on which the alleged poolroom is being erected just beyond the District of Columbia line at Kenilworth, D. C., was sold to Percy T. Humphrey by Francis A. Cabelox and wife on April 17. The price paid was about $5,000. Kenilworth people are disposed to believe that the same people who were interested in the resort at St. Asaph are the promoters of the new establishment, the erection of which has caused so much disturbance among the residents of that suburb and its neighbors, Tuxedo, Md., the two communities bordering on the line between the District and Maryland at the point where the poolroom is to be established. It is reported by those who claim to know something of the intentions of the promoters that it will be run as a club, with admittance by card only. A committee went to Upper Marlboro today to ascertain what can be done to prevent the erection of the poolroom and the establishment of a bar. A large force of men were at work yesterday on the building. The roof was put on, and it is said that by Monday the structure will be completed.

Personal.

Rev. H. St. George Tucker, son of Rev. Dr. B. D. Tucker, of Norfolk, has returned from Japan on a vacation until next year. He is president of St. Paul's Episcopal College in Tokio and a graduate of the University of Virginia and the Theological Seminary, near this city.

WATCHES AND JEWELRY

Just Plain Jewelry Facts.

(1) It costs money to make good jewelry. Gold, silver and workmanship don't grow on bushes.

(2) Good jewelry can't be sold at a price less than the first cost, plus makers' and sellers' profits.

(3) Cheap jewelry isn't worth the space it takes to describe it. It always proves unsatisfactory.

(4) Good jewelry can be guaranteed; cheap jewelry can't.

(5) We sell only jewelry that is made by reliable manufacturers, guaranteed by them and by us. We sell it at as low prices as can possibly be made on goods of equal quality.

(6) It will pay you to come to us for your jewelry needs. Any day—but today best of all.
